NO PRIMARY DESIRED UNTIL AFTER AUGUST ELECTIONS ARE HELD

First District Congressional Committee So Expresses Itself.

Greeneville, Feb., 1,—The republican congressional committee of the first district met at the Hotel Brumley, Saturday, Chairman O. B. Lovette presiding and all members of the committee except Mr. John T. Fuller of Johnson county. The committee went on record in favor of a primary to select a republican candidate for congress, this primary to be held after the August election.

The committee did not consider it wise to mix congressional and county politics.

The committee also expressed favor of a compromise with the progressive republicans, stating the basis upon which such a compromise might be reached.

The committee's resolutions, unanimously adopted, were as fol lows.—

We, the members of the republican congressional executive committee for the first congressional district of Tennessee, in meeting assembled, hereby renew our allegiance to the republican party We look with pride upon its past record and look forward to its future with hope and confidence Its achievements in government constitute the brightest pages in our history. Our greatest prosperity has been had during its reign. It has always been a party of progress. It has met all of its pledges to the people and has amply responded to every public need. It is not only a party of advanced constructive statesmanship in the nation but in Tennessee it has taken advanced grounds along all lines of reform, standing for civic righteousness, tem perence, honesty and decency in government. We believe it is prepared to go forward with a solution of all new questions, social, moral or industrial, which are of interest to the people today, thus believing and desiring the co operation of all citizens in this congressional district who agree with us, and whereas,

TERMS OF COMPROMISE.

Certain overtures have been made to this committee by what is known as the progressive republican committeee for this district, looking toward a union or a merger with this committee, and whereas:

It is the desire of the republican congressional executive committee, as well as the desire of all good republicans, that there should be only one committee claiming to represent those voters who owe allegiance to the republican party or who believe in its doctrines and policies, and whereas:

It is eminently desirable that all such citizens should be solidly united in order that they may be better able to combat the common foe, the democratic party; therefore,

Be it resolved, that we favor such union, merger or compromise, wilh the progressive republican party, on the following terms and conditions:

1. That said progressive republican committee shall by resolution, or in some definite way, indicate that they commit themselves unreservedly to the tenets and doctrines of the republican party in both state and national affairs.

2. Agree to stand to and abide by its platform and support its candidates when nominated.

3. Agree to join the republicans in supporting all republican nominees and discourage all third party candidates in national, state and county elections.

4. Agree to join the republicans, in nominating and electing republicans as members of the state senate and house of representatives who are worthy members of the republican party and who are well known advocates of the present temperance and law enforcement statutes, and who will stand for the present election laws and favor the repeal of the election laws which the late quorumless legislature attempted to pass in case it is declared to be valid by the supreme court.

Be it further resolved, that in the event the progressive republican committee agrees to stand for these principles, then we favor holding a primary election on such date after the August election as may be agreed upon, for the purpose of nominating a republican candidate for congress, and for the election of a republican congressional executive committee for the first congressional district. Both committees to bind themselves to surrender all authority to the new committee thus elected by the people.

1910 RULES FAVORED.

Be it further resolved, that we favor the adoption of the rules and regulations used in the last primary election held in this district, in October, 1910, which rules provide for fair representation to all candidates.

Resolved further, that the progressive republican committee be, and hereby is, guaranteed fair representation at the polls, in the event said committee shall decide to act with this committee and return to the republican party.

Resolved further, that we earnestly appeal to all republicans, without regard to faction or past affiliation, to rally to the support of the republican party of the first congressional district.

Respectfully submitted,

ROD ARMSTRONG,
C. C. COLLINS,
JOHN F, NEAS,
Committee on resolutions.

The above resolution was unanimously adopted by the committee.

O. B. LOVETTE,
Chairman.

Secretary.

VERY HANDY WITH A KNIFE

Mayor Gale P. Kyle, of Rogersville, Escaped Serious Harm.

Rogersville. Tenn., Jan. 30:—Mayor Gale P. Kyle had a narrow escape this afternoon, when his coat was cut almost in shreds with a knife in the hands of Grady Bowen. The latter, who is said to have been drinking heavily, went to Mayor Kyle's clothing store, and asking to see the mayor priyately, called him out at the rear of the store. There he told the mayor he wanted to be marshal of the town, and wanted the mayor's vote and influence. The mayor replied that he had no vote in the council, except in case of tie, and advised young Bowen to see the aldermen. Bowen whipped out a knife, and commenced slashing at Mayor Kyle, cutting his coat in several places before the latter could back into the store and shut the door on Bowen.

Young Bowen started down the Bristol pike, and meeting the young son of Jake Snapp, colord who was carring a gun, demanded the gun. When the lad refused to give it to him, Bowen started using his knife on the negro, and badly cut him about the face, neck and hands.

Marshal John B. Alton started after Bowen, and soon arrested and brought him back to town, and he will be given a trial tomorrow.

Bowen is twenty years of age, and is the son of Rev. G. E. Bowen, pastor of the Baptist church here. The affair is much deplored.

Shoots Aged Man, Mistaken For Burglar

Memphis, Tenn., Feb. 2.—Because of her mistake in killing J. A. Gault, aged sixty, for a burglar early today, Mrs. Eva Francis is lying at the point of death from prostration. Her husband had a short time before the shooting met Gault on the street and directed him to his home to get breakfast, Mrs. Francis, who was still in bed, was awakened by a noise on the rear porch, according to her story to the police, and after receiving no answer to her calls opened fire through the door with a shotgun, blowing away part of Gault's head.

Frank Dibrell Dead.

Nashville, Tenn., Feb. 1.—Frank Dibrell, aged 55, for nine years comptroller of this state, suddenly became ill with colic at five o'clock this morning and died at 11:45 a. m. He was widely known in the south and was at one time state senator.

CORN SHOW THIS FALL FOR THE CORN CLUB-BOYS OF GREENE COUNTY

Mr. S. A. Miller, of The Southern Railway, Will Assist in The Work,

At the regular meeting of the Greene County Teachers' Association at the Court House in Greeneville, Saturday, January, 31st, it was decided to have a Corn Show in Greeneville next fall for the boys of the different Corn Clubs of the county. After remarks by Mr. S. A. Miller agricultural representative of the Southern R. R, and by Supt. Joel N. Pierce, a committee consisting of R. H. Burkheart, N. A. Steadman, J. B. Brooks, and H. L. Callahan, was appointed to discuss rules and plans, and provide prizes for the occasion.

The committee met, Mr. Miller was asked to be present to offer suggestions. It was decided to have the show in November or December, and to have in connection with the show a two days course of lectures by agricultural experts. It was decided to have six contests with prizes for the winner in each contest.

The rules and some of the prizes for the contests will be published at an early date.

the contests and the number of prizes offered will be as follows:

Contest (1) First, second, third and possibly further prizes for best yields and reports on upland acre of corn.

Contest (2) First, second, third and possibly further prizes for best yields and reports on lowland acre of corn.

Contest (3) Prize for acre most economically grown.

Contest (4) Prize for best judge of corn, the contestants to consist of one representative from each corn club in the county.

Contest (5) First, second, third, fourth and fifth prizes for best ten ears of corn grown in Greene County. This contest will be open to any resident of Greene County.

Contest (6) One prize for the best single ear of corn raised in Greene County. The contest will be open to any resident of the county.

The first four contests will be restricted to boys ten years of age and over, who are members of a corn club in Greene County and shall have attended school in the County during the session of 1913-1914.

Each boy who enters one of the first three contests will chose three respectable men of his community who are in no way related to him to measure and decide whether it is lowland or upland.

The boy will send the names of these men to Supt. Joel N. Pierce, who will, in case he thinks any of them incompetent, inform the boy. The boy will then submit the name or names of others for the approval of Supt. Pierce. In deciding as to whether an acre is upland or lowland, an acre will be judged lowland if any part of it has been formed by the deposit of soil by flowing water, or is situated on the bed of an old pond or lake.

Each contestant in the first three contests must keep a complete record of the raising of the acre which will be embodied in the report to be submitted by each of the contestants in these three contests. This record should be arranged chronologically and should give date of each operation, number of hours work, machinery or tools used, kind of stock or power used in pulling the plow or other machinery, the cost of the work, the cost of the materials, seed, fertilizers, manure etc, used, whether the work was done by the boy or not, and, if not done by the boy, reason why not, the weather etc.

The boy must do all of the work that he possibly can and shall in his report, as stated above, state why he did not do any of the work that others did for him.

In valuing labor, the boy shall value his own labor at seven cents an hour and that of any one else at ten cents an hour. The work of a horse or mule shall be valued at seven cents an hour. Also each horsepower when gasoline engine or other motive power is used, shall be valued at seven cents per hour. Manure shall be valued at $1 00 per load.

In awarding prizes in the first three contests, considerable weight will be given to the report witten by each contestant submitted when contest is entered.

The boys in these contests are supposed to know corn and how their acres were raised. It takes hard work as well as motive power to raise corn.

Fuller announcements will be given at an early date.

Ruliug on Parcel Post.

We Told You So

Some time ago we said in these columns that we did not believe you could find a better medicine for STOMACH and LIVER TROUBLES than KALO TRADE MARK

We Repeat it Now, and Here's Proof:

A Typical Expression, from one of Greene County's Best Citizens.

"Brown, KALO is the best thing you people make; it suits me better, anyhow. My wife thinks KALO is the greatest Liver Medicine made. We sell lots of it in our store, and the good part about it is, people who try it once come for more. A. RADER, Dulaney, Tenn.

From Pilot Hill.

Some time ago I was suffering so much from a disordered stomach and liver that I gave up, went to bed and was just going to send for a doctor. Mr. V. W. Copp, who sells KALO in this section, came in about that time and brought me a trial bottle of KALO. I took it, and got so much better that I sent and purchased a large bottle. It brought me right up in a few days. I am a believer in KALO.
S. W. HARDIN,
Pilot Hill, Tenn.

An Old Friend.

I have used KALO ever since it was placed on the market, and would not think of doing without it. KALO suits me exactly, just as it would suit others if they would use it.
I buy my KALO from Mrs. Mary Squibb's store at Upchurch. Yours truly,
J. H. MALONE.

The Best Liver Medicine.

I have used KALO ever since T. C. Lane & Son have been selling it, and find it to be the best liver medicine I have been able to get.

A Little Girl Cured of Stomach Trouble.

To show how well suited KALO is for general family use, my little daughter was entirely cured of a grave stomach trouble after we had given her a treatment of KALO.
T. C. LANE,

Kalo Takes the Place of Calomel.

A friend of mine got me to try a bottle of KALO some time since, which did me so much good that I purchased another bottle from Mr. Dallas Weems I now think KALO is the greatest medicine for constipation made. I especially like it because it takes the place of calomel. MRS. ALICE BROWN, Jearoldstown, Tenn.

Saved Baby's Life

Mrs. F. C. Wilhoit, residing near Wilhoits Mill, R. F. D. Greeneville, Tenn., writes; "I honestly believe KALO saved the life of my ten-months-old baby. The stomach and liver was in bad condition, from teething. I began with 4 drops of KALO, increasing the dose until I found it was large enough. My child began improving at once, and now it is the very picture of health.

Cured After Ten Years Suffering

I don't know whether it was KALO or not, but I do know that I suffered for ten years from stomach and liver troubles, and after a treatment of KALO I was cured.

Geo. Gardner Feels Like a New Man

Mr. Geo. Gardner, Route 15, Greeneville, Tenn., writes: "KALO will do all you claim; I was in a run-down condition in every way and two bottles made me feel like a new man. I can recomend it to any one who has stomach or liver troubles."

Sid Noell, Brother of ex-sheriff Jno. A. Noell.

Mr. Noell is a modern-method farmer, of Greene Co., Tenn., and a man who goes after the best of everything, and knows a good thing when he sees it. He writes. "We like KALO better than anything we ever used for liver and stomach troubles. We regard it as a household necessity and keep it in our home at all times." Suffering from Bad Case of Dyspepsia

I certainly am glad to recommend your wonderful medicine, KALO. I was suffering from a bad case of dyspepsia, had tried a number of doctors' prescriptions but got no better until I used KALO, and am now entirely cured I have persuaded a number of my friends to use it with good results. (Ex-Reppresentative) J. D. BROWN, Locust Springs, Tenn.

From Bright Hope, Tenn.

I have never yet found a liver and stomach medicine that suits me as well as KALO. From the time I purchased my first bottle from Bruce Love and began its use I have not suffered with my usual liver trouble, but feel better than I have for years. KALO did it.
J. C. CLOWERS.

Another One of Our Most Prominent Citizens.

W. H. Earnest, of Afton, Route 2, says: "I think KALO the best all-'round liver and stomach medicine I have been able to get. I began to improve with the first bottle I purchased from J. I. Earnest."

Gives Better Results than Calomel.

Myers, Tenn., Jan. 15, 1914.
KALO is a staple article in my home. Have found it splendid in treating the little ailments of my children. I use it instead of calomel and with much better results.
W. H. HARTMAN.

Some Nice Boquets

Cloyd Parman, the hustling member of J. H. Parman & Sons, whose big store is located south of Birds Bridge, says: "I cannot tell you all the nice things my customers say about KALO; every one of them who have used this medicine tell me how good it is. When such good citizens as W. R. Harrison, W. A. Crum, A. J. Miller and Joe Cooter say KALO is the best, it certainly means something.
KALO is one of my best sellers."

EDUCATIONAL

The most of our schools in the county closed Jan. 30th, making a six months term school, the length of the term this year. The work of the school officials and teachers are now ready for the people to pass judgment on.

But we hope before any one makes any severe criticism upon the educational force, that they will make themselves acquainted with the facts concerning the subject they have in mind, and take in consideration the amount of work that is required to be done.

As Attendance Officer and Supervisor, perhaps the public would like to know something, in a brief way, what I have been doing. I have visited 120 schools some of these three or four different times; have assisted in adjusting some difficulties, and reported the conditions of the schools and the educational interest of the different communities to the Superintendent and the Board of Education. I have examined 600 reports from the teachers, and have written 1,000 letters to the patrons of the county, to remind them of the compulsory school law and to tell them it would be our duty to make an indictment, if they continued to violate the school law.

It most cases the parties complied with the law after receiving these notices. But some failed to do this and were indicted. Perhaps there should have been several more indictments made, but I have not been convinced of the fact.

This has been very trying to settle, in many instances, just what was the proper thing to do; but we have been impartial in this work and performed the duties of the office to the best of our ability.

Tnis is a very large County and it is impossible for one to acquaint himself with all the details of every case that needs attention.

We cannot tell exactly the per cent of increase that this law has made, but the reports show near 1000 more in attendance than ever before. I have been present at some of the meetings of the Board of Education, and they certainly express a very deep interest in the success of the schools.

But when they have so many teachers to employ, it is no wonder that occasionally they place one that does not make a success.

We have most of the schools in fine shape now, the teachers in the main were very much in earnest, and are paying back to the county on its investment in the way of a better educated people.

Our County Supt. has not been loafing any on his job, he has the interest of education at heart. He would like for the patrons to visit their schools at least once a month so that they might be better acquainted.

A large number of the patrons of the County are taking a lively interest in the cause of education, so compairing this years work with the past and this County with other counties, we believe we are making some progress

M. D. ELLIS,
Attendance officer and Supervisor Greene County.

Educational Meeting.

There will be an educational meeting at Mt. Sinai Saturday night Feb. 7th. Profs. N. A. Steadman, L. E Easterly, L. D. Henard and J. B. Huntsman will be the principal speakers. The object is to consolidate or at least to help create a sentiment along this line, three small schools and to stir up a deeper interest in the schools in this locality. Everybody is invited to attend and hear these excellent school men on the live subjects pertaining to better schools. The County Supt of schools, as well as members of the Board of Education are expected to be on hands at this important meeting.

Prof. U. S. Frye will have charge of the exercises and a general good time is anticipated.

You are invited to attend whether you are for better schools are not.

Mr. RILEY BAILEY, of Baileyton, announces his candidacy for Trustee in this issue. Mr. Bailey is well known, especially in the upper end of the county, and is a first-class man in every respect. If he receives the nomination he will be our next Trustee.

In this issue appears the announcement of Mr. H. C. Remine for the office of Sheriff. Mr. Remine has made an excellent official and has been courteous and fair to everybody. This office is not a paying position by any means, and it is a great sacrifice for Mr. Remine to make the race.

There is now $40,000,000 on deposit in the Postal Savings Banks throughout the country.

The provisions of the postal savings act which limit the amount that may be accepted from a depositor to $10[illegible] in a calander month and restricts his maximum balance to $500 have seriously impared the intended utility of the service. A conservative estimate indicates that more money has been refused than has been accepted. A bill removing these restrictions and permitting unlimited deposits has already passed th House and is now pending in the Senate.

Some time ago the Commercial Club took the matter of free delivery of express up with the proper officials of the Southern Express Company. That company has not as yet made or expressed a willingness to make arrangements to thus accommodate their patrons.

We believe the business given the company at this point warrants a demand being made upon them for this consideration. If you are interested in having your express collected and delivered at your door, help the movement by writing a letter to Mr. W. S. McFarland, General Superintendent Southern Express Company, Birmingham, Alabama.

Our New Linotype.

We have just bought and are now installing a Model K Linotype that will be second to none in East Tennessee. This is a very expensive piece of machinery, but will so greatly increase the typesetting capacity of our office that we will be able to give to our readers more live news than ever before. The machine operates very much like a typewriter, the operator simply pressing the proper keys and the machine moulding and dropping into place whole lines of type ready for the press.

The machine will cost us when installed for operation more than twenty five hundred dollars,

Those who are indebted to the Searchlight will co[illegible] favor by paying up at this time.

Harmony in Sight

On last Tuesday the committee known as the Shipley Congressional Committee, met at Bulls Gap for the purpose of further considering harmony propositions that have been pending between that committee and the Congressional committee over which Hon. O. B. Lovette presides as chairman

At this meeting the resolutions adopted by the Lovette committee in Greeneville on Jan. 31st, in which certain definite harmony propositions were made, were taken up and discussed and resolutions adopted accepting in most instances the proposals therein made and proposing certain other conditions

A sub-committee was authorized and appointed with full power to confer with a like committee of the opposing congressional committee and to arrange and further details necessary to promote and bring about the full and complete union of the warring factions in the first congressional district. In the event of an agreement between the sub-committees a joint primary will be called, in which a committee to succeed the two contending committees will be elected and a republican candidate for congress nominated.

As we have said before, all who are interested in the success of the republican party are likewise interested in the pending proposals of harmony and for them to allow those who are moved by selfish motives to defeat this end would be unpardonable folly. Let those who are managing the affairs of the party in these negotiations be charitable and cool headed. It is no time to furnish supposed enemies or further selfish interests, but a time to render a lasting service to the party.

We see no reason now why harmony can not be an accomplished fact in this district.

Candidates Agreement.

The following agreement explains itself; and it is certainly commendable on the part of the candidates to enter into and abide by such an arrangement:

"We the undersigned candidates for the various county offices, of Greene county, do each and severally hereby promise and agree that we will not use nor permit to be used with our consent any money, or other undue influence, to secure the nomination for any office to which we may aspire. We further agree to relenquish any nomination tendered if the foregoing is in any sense violated:—and we further pledge ourselves to support the nominee of the Republican party whoever he may be for the respective offices for which we are candidates, as well as all other candidates who are nominated in this contest.

For Congress.

We are authorized to announce the name of Hon. John T. Fuller, of Johnson couny, for the Republican nomination for Congress, subject to the will of the party. Your support is solicited.

To the Republicans of Greene County:

I desire to announce to you my candidacy for the nomination to represent the county for the second time in the General Assembly, subject to the convention to be held April 6th.

It should not be out of place for me to state here that as your representative during the 58th General Assembly, I endeavored to give all the people of the county a just and equitable administration of the affairs of that office, trying at all times to avoid any semblance of discrimination in favor of one man as against another. Then during the tempestuous period of the last legislature, when the clouds of political strife and turmoil were flying so thick and fast as to almost obscure the way to right, I sought the guidance of Almighty God, that I might make no mistake in the choice of my course. As with every man that is sent to represent his people in the State Legislature or in the National Congress, I have not been able to please all; but I can say honestly and conscientiously that I desired to do so, and that I did it as far as circumstances permitted in every case Furthermore, I believe that my experience in the 58th General Assembly has served to somewhat cure the defect of legislative awkwardness that most new members of the law-making body are afflicted with, thus fitting me to serve you in a more capable and effective manner. If given the nomination this once again, I will make a clean campaign against my political opponent, whoever he might be, and strive in every way to conserve the interests of the people and of our party. If elected I shall be your obedient servant.

DR. T. B. HUGHES.

"The Girl and the Stampede"

Victor E. Lambert's romance, the "Girl and the Stampede" will be the attraction at the Gem Theatre, next Monday, Feb. 9th. It abounds in the quaint and interesting types that Mr. Lambert has been so successful with in his proctions to the public through his plays and books. The piece deals with the westerner, and for the first time in all the so called western plays, Mr. Lambert has in "The Girl and the Stamped," correctly portrayed the man from the West in his true character. The Company is a large and strong one and carries the complete scenic equipment which was used in its New York and Chicago engagements. As always, it has been up to Mr. Lambert to introduce something new into his plays, and in this case he has been wonderfully successful. The sale of seats will start one week in advance at usual place, and careful attention will be given to mail and telephone orders.

Mr. Thacker's Card.

At the solicitation of friends four years ago, and at a time when the Republican party of our County was looking for men to make the race for the different county offices, and at a time when it looked gloomy for suecess for the party, and at a time when it seemed that there was but few who were willing to sacrifice there other vocations and take the risk of meeting with defeat, after due consideration I decided to enter the race for Register of Deeds.

When a convention was called for the purpose of nominating candidates to make the race for the various county offices, I was chosen to make the race for Register, and when the following August Election came on, I was declared elected to the office to which I was an aspirant.

Having always lived in the country, and leaving my family in the country where they still remain, existing conditions necessitating this, which is not necessary here to explain, I on September the 5 1910, entered upon the duties of the office which had been entrusted to me, and took particular pains to learn all that was necessary for me to know in order that I might be able to carry into effect the full duties of the office in as much as I possibly could in aecordance with the laws of our beloved State "Sunny Tennessee." This being the case and having sacrificed, and now lost, in a great measure, my trade, which I had worked hard for years to establish, in order that I might serve the people in a capable manner, officially. Since I am now familiar with the work and am much better prepared to better fulfill the duties of the office, and since in the past it has been customary to give an official a seoond nomination, I earnestly request that the republican party will grant me this a second nomination, if in the judgment of the people my official record has been such as to warrant such action. I invite investigation as to my official record during my present term.

In conclusion will say, if it is the will of the party to give me a second nomination, shall try to get elected, and if such is the case I promise to serve as best I can, and do not expect to ask a further nomination.

Thanking everybody for what they have already done for me and for all they may feel disposed to do for me further; not now being able to get away from the work in the office to make a canvass but hoping to see the voters, which I intend doing, if possible, later.

With due respect to each of my opponents, I am,

Very truly yours,
S. D THACKER.

"THE NATIONAL"
The Focus of fifty-five years of range building

In National Steel Ranges is used only high grade steel. By severe tests for years this range has proven the very best that money and skill can produce.

In the construction of the National are eliminated all weak points of other ranges.

There's none so good for so little money—none better for any. A National range wall consist of asbestos mill board 1/4in. thick, protected by a sheet of steel on each side of it; the three sheets being riveted together. The inner walls of this range are of No. 14 gauge steel, the outer No. 16 gauge steel. The asbestos is a non-conductor and retains heat in oven just where it is needed.

The National oven rack has three separate supports giving great latitude in distance of pan from top oven plate. With the adjustable oven rack anything from a pan of biscuit to a large turkey can have the desired heat.

The oven doors of the National are so evenly balanced that but a push is sufficient to raise or lower them. Rigidly braced to support the heaviest pan when down.

Dr. George Dudley died at his home in Knoxville last Saturday, and his body was brought to Paint Rock on Sunday, and there taken charge of by his brother Odd Fellows, and brought across the mountain to Pine Springs Church, where all that was mortal of this noble young man was laid to rest by the side of his father to await the resurrection. He leaves a mother and several brothers and sisters, besides a host of friends to mourn his loss. For the past few years this young man had been in search of health and had gone twice to Arizona, hoping the climate there might prove beneficial. How sad it is to see him taken just as he had prepared himself for his life's work. He had by his own efforts educated himself, which proves that any man with energy and hard work can make for himself a name. We extend sympathy to all of his relatives.

On last Saturday afternoon at 2:30 "Aunt" Via Rollins departed tnis life. She was sick four days of pneumonia, and many of her friends knew nothing of her illness until they learned of her death. Pleasure and Protection

"One of the best reasons why I would not be without telephone service," writes a Georgia farmer, "is the pleasure it gives my wife and the knowledge that while I am away, she has the protection that the telephone gives."

On the farm the telephone dispels loneliness and is the means of bringing help in any emergency that may arise.

If you haven't a telephone on your farm see the nearest Bell Telephone Manager or write for our free booklet and learn how little this service costs.

Woman Finally Recovers From Nervous Breakdown

Impoverished nerves destroy many people before their time. Often before a sufferer realizes what the trouble is, he is on the verge of a complete nervous breakdown. It is of the utmost importance to keep your nervous system in good condition, as the nerves are the source of all bodily power. Mrs. Rosa Bonner, 825 N. 18th St., Birmingham, Ala., says:

"I have been suffering with nervous prostration for nine or ten years. Have tried many of the best doctors in Birmingham, but they all failed to reach my case. I would feel as if I was smothering; finally I went into convulsions. My little girl saw advertised in the papers and I at once began to take it. I continued to take it for some time and now I am well."

If you are troubled with loss of appetite, poor digestion, weakness, inability to sleep; if you are in a general run down condition and unable to bear your part of the daily grind of life, you need something to strengthen your nerves. You may not realize what is the matter with you, but that is no reason why you should delay treatment.

Dr. Miles' Nervine

has proven its value in nervous disorders for thirty years, and merits a trial, no matter how many other remedies have failed to help you.

Sold by all druggists. If first bottle fails to benefit your money is returned.

MYERS

The public entertainment at Mt. Pleasant, the evening of the 28th ult., was largely attended and was thoroughly enjoyed by all present. The young talent that produced these plays and the teachers are to be complimented for the pains and effort of the undertaking.

John D. Hull has purchased the farm of J. W. Wright, paying a handsome sum therefor.

W. C. Remine and John Grant were here last Thursday erecting monumental jobs to the memories of George Hull and James Edgar Myers.

"Major," an old, faithful and true horse, that has been in our service since we were a boy, dropped dead in the harness on Thursday of last week, aged 22 years, 10 months and 12 days. He was a loyal and dignified servant His ability to saddle gracefully and easy brought forth assent from some of the best horsemen we have ever known.

C. F. Hartman bought a small tract of land from Mr. Rutledge last week.

E. F. Myers, after spending about four months here with relatives and friends, returned to his home at McKinney, Tex., starting Sunday, p. m.

Messrs. N. C. Bible and J. M. Reed attended the Methodist Efficiency Conference, at Knoxville, last Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mr. Editor, we realize you are giving us a good paper, and the readers are willing to pay a dollar for it a year. Just come out and say the roads may be bad all year and that you are disgusted with the $1.50 per year propaganda, and that the SEARCHLIGHT will continue to throw its bright rays into the homes of all at the old time price. This is business and what you will ultimately have to do.

F. C. Hartman has recovered from a spell of the mumps.

A bridge across a branch of Little Chuckey, near the arch, was replaced last week. This bridge has been needing attention for some weeks.

Prof. J. B. Brooks and Hubert Brumley, of Glenwood, were among the prominent visitors at the entertainment. Prof. Fry, the principal at Mt. Pleasant, has been suffering intense pain from lumbago, but is now able to take his place in the school room.

The many friends of Mrs. G. W. Matney will regret her indisposition and pray for her recovery.

Republicans are well pleased with district primary and county convention, ordered by the Republican Executive Committee. But once in our memory has this party in this county nominated its candidates for county offices by a county wide or general primary. That was in 1896. Sheriff Bewley was an unopposed candidate for Sheriff, and the candidates for Trustee were Hons. J. W. Howard and G. A. Bailey. The results of this primary are not forgotten even to this day.

C. C. Myers, our efficient miller, got his clothes entangled on a set screw about his machinery and came very near getting badly hurt; but being of quick nerve and good judgment, he extricated himself unhurt, but badly scared. I have often warned machinists to be very careful. I have helped to take several mangled men out of machinery. One, I remember, when taken out, had every large bone in his body crushed. He lived only a few minutes. Boys, be careful!

G. B. Harmon was somewhat indisposed, but is much better now.

A number of citizens are planting potatoes, onions, sowing lettuce, planting peas &c. A little early, but your scribe has lettuce almost large enough to eat.

Sunday being a beautiful day, I went to the M. E. Church. Rev. Matney was at his post and delivered an able sermon. The theme was parents' duty to their children, and children's to their parents. Quite a number of our neighboring parents and their boys should have been there. Your scribe was impressed by the forceful manner in which it was discussed. Dr. Matney is the right man at the right place.

O, this spring like weather! The wheat fields are green, and a few peach buds are opening their beautiful colors to the radiant sun.
